Case No. 2:12-cv-01688-LRH-GWF

ORDER

The Court has received the parties' Stipulated Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order (#45) filed March 15, 2013. The proposed Order before the Court does not comply with the requirements of LR 26-1. LR 26-1(e)(1) sets a period of 180 days as a presumptively reasonable amount of time in which to conduct discovery. The 180 days is measured from the date the first defendant answered or otherwise appeared. Discovery plans requesting longer than 180 days from the date the first defendant answers or appears require special scheduling review. Where such special scheduling review is requested, the plan shall state the reasons why longer or different time periods should apply. The parties' Stipulated Discovery Plan does not provide any explanation why a discovery period longer than 180 days is needed. Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Stipulated Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order (#45) is denied, without prejudice.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties are to file a revised Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order in compliance with LR 26-1(d), including any request for special scheduling

1 review, no later than March 28, 2013. The revised discovery plan should state the reasons why a
2 longer discovery period should be granted.

3 DATED this 18th day of March, 2013.
